1. CONSTITUTION

1.1 Terms of Reference

- 1.1.1 The Shetland Charitable Trust (“the Trust”) is a charity registered in Scotland with charity number SC027025. It is governed by its Deed of Trust dated 13th and 14th September 2012 and registered in the Books of Council and Session on 27th September 2012 (“the Deed of Trust”).
- 1.1.2 These Administrative Regulations are granted in furtherance of Clause (FOURTH) of the Deed of Trust (“these Regulations”).

2. TRUSTEES OF THE TRUST

2.1 Roles and Duties

- 2.1.1 Trustees must set and thereafter implement the strategic aims, objectives and direction of the Trust. Trustees must exercise overall control over financial affairs and ensure the completion of the relevant statutory reports, returns and accounts.
- 2.1.2 Trustees must act in the interests of the Trust at all times. They must promote the success of the Trust in the way that they think, in good faith, would be most likely to help the Trust achieve its purposes.
- 2.1.3 Trustees must try, in good faith, to ensure that the Trust acts in a way which is consistent with its purposes as set out in the Deed of Trust.
- 2.1.4 Trustees must act with the care and diligence that it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person.
- 2.1.5 Trustees must manage conflicts of interest if they have (or can have) a direct or indirect interest which conflicts or might conflict with the interests of the Trust. They must put the interests of the Trust before those of anyone responsible for their appointment. They must also declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which they have in a proposed transaction or arrangement.
- 2.1.6 Trustees must ensure that the Trust complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed on it as a result of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (“the Charities Act”).
- 2.1.7 Trustees must take any steps that are reasonably practicable to ensure that any breach of duty by a fellow Trustee is corrected and not repeated and also that any Trustee who seriously or persistently breaches his/her duties is removed as a Trustee.
- 2.1.8 Trustees must act within their powers and only exercise those powers for the purposes for which the powers were granted.
- 2.1.9 Trustees must exercise independent judgement. They must not accept benefits from third parties which might give rise to a conflict of interests and which are given because of the Trustee’s position or because of an action (s)he can take.
- 2.1.10 Trustees must attend meetings regularly and, unless a task is delegated, must act together to take decisions affecting the Trust. Trustees nonetheless also retain ultimate responsibility for even delegated decisions.
- 2.1.11 Trustees must act in accordance with not only charity law but the law in general.
- 2.1.12 Trustees must take professional advice where appropriate or necessary.

2.2 Code of Conduct

- 2.2.1 All Trustees shall be required to accept and sign and return to the Trust the ‘Code of Conduct’ set out in Appendix A.
- 2.2.2 Trustees may be subject to another Code of Conduct, for example the Councillors Code of Conduct or a Code of Conduct which applies to him or her by virtue of a professional body of which he or she is a member. In the event that any such code or other duty to which a Trustee is subject to imposes a higher standard than imposed by these Regulations, then that Trustee must follow that higher standard

2.3 Appointment of Trustees

2.3.1 All Trustees shall be appointed, and retire, in accordance with the Schedule of Governance Arrangements appended to the Deed of Trust an extract of which is reproduced as Appendix C.

2.4 Induction

2.4.1 All new Trustees other than those selected or appointed for a second successive term shall receive an induction pack which will include the following:-

- the Trust's Deed of Trust
- the most recent audited accounts
- the Code of Conduct
- the Register of Interest Form
- guidance on duties as Trustees.

In addition, such induction pack may include information on the Trust's strategy and administration and copies of any policies and other guidance as is appropriate to include.

2.4.2 All new Trustees other than those appointed for a second successive term shall have a meeting with at least one of the Chair, the Vice Chair, and the Chief Executive and shall be required to undertake introductory Trustee training which will be provided.

2.5 Election of Chair

2.5.1 The election of the Chair will be the first business transacted at the first Trustees' meeting following the retirement of the outgoing Chair. At that meeting, until the Chair is elected, the outgoing Chair, failing whom a Trustee selected by the meeting, shall preside. A person holding the office of Chair shall be eligible for re-election as Chair for one further term thereafter.

2.5.2 Prior to voting, nominations for the position of Chair shall be sought and nominees shall be permitted to address the meeting as to their candidature. No questions will be permitted in response, and no further nominations will be allowed after voting begins.

2.5.3 If there is only one candidate, (s)he shall be elected. If there is more than one candidate, voting shall be by secret ballot. Regardless of the number of candidates, each Trustee will vote for one candidate at each ballot. After the first ballot, the candidate who secures a clear majority of the total votes cast shall be elected. However, in the case of no clear majority, the lowest scoring candidate shall drop out and the second ballot will take place. This method shall continue until the appointment is made either by clear majority or a choice between two remaining candidates. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall be elected by lot as between those who received equal votes, and proceed on the basis that the person to whom the lot falls upon had received the additional vote.

2.5.4 If a casual vacancy arises in the office of Chair, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held as soon as practicable. The Vice Chair of the Trust shall act as the Chair until such time as a new Chair is elected. The notice of the Trustees' meeting at which the election is to be held shall specify the filling of the vacancy as an item of business and election shall take place in the usual manner.

2.6 Duties and Responsibilities of Chair

- 2.6.1 The duties of the Chair of the Trust are set out below.
- 2.6.2 The Chair's overall purpose is to provide leadership and direction to the Trustees, enabling them to fulfil their responsibilities for the overall governance and strategic direction of the Trust and also for developing the Trust's aims, objectives and goals in accordance with the governing document, legal and regulatory guidelines.
- 2.6.3 The Chair will work with the Chief Executive to ensure that Trustee decisions are acted upon and the Trust is managed in an effective manner.
- 2.6.4 The Chair's main responsibilities are:
- a. chairing Trust meetings;
 - b. leading the trustees and members of the staff to develop strategic plans for the Trust;
 - c. with the Chief Executive, ensuring that the Trust is run in accordance with the decisions of the trustees and the Trust's governing document;
 - d. liaising with the relevant staff to draft agendas for trustee meetings and ensure that the business is covered efficiently and effectively in those meetings;
 - e. manage matters relating to conflicts of interest between the Trust and the Council in terms of Regulation 2.9.
- 2.6.5 Other duties of the Chair are:
- a. taking action on behalf of the Trust on matters which will not admit of delay;
 - b. speaking with the press or other media on behalf of the Trust;
 - c. acting as "spokesperson" for the Trust in other situations;
 - d. representing the Trust at functions;
 - e. representing the Trust on external bodies.

2.7 Vice Chair

- 2.7.1 A Vice Chair will be elected in the same manner as the Chair. The Vice Chair shall substitute for the Chair as and when required and support the Chair in fulfilling the duties set out above. Anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chair may, in the Chair's absence or where the Chair's authorisation has been granted, be done by, to or before the Vice Chair. The Vice Chair will be eligible for re-election for one further term thereafter.

2.8 Advisory Councils or Committees

- 2.8.1 The Trustees have the power in terms of the Deed of Trust to create an Advisory Council or Councils or Committee or Committees (referred to in these Regulations as "committees") to act along with the Trustees and/or advise them on all or any of the objects of the Trust provided always that the creation, constitution, membership and continuance of any such committees shall be entirely at the discretion of the Trustees.

2.9 Conflicts of Interest

2.9.1 Trustees have a duty to manage any conflicts of interest. Conflicts of interest may create problems, such as:

- (a) inhibit free discussion;
- (b) result in decisions or actions that are not in the interests of the Trust; and
- (c) risk giving the impression that the Trust has acted improperly.

2.9.2 In law, conflicts of interest may arise in circumstances where there is a conflict or the potential of a conflict of interest between:-

- (a) the personal interests of a Trustee and those of the Trust; and
- (b) the concerns of two different organisations to which a Trustee is affiliated;

Further, in terms of Section 66 (c) of the Charities Act Trustees must:-

“in circumstances capable of giving rise to a conflict of interest between the Trust and any person responsible for the appointment of the Trustees:-

- (i) put the interests of the Trust before those of the other person; or
- (ii) where any other duty prevents the Trustee from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the Trust and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other Trustees with respect to the matter in question.”.

2.9.3 Generally, in deciding whether a conflict, or a potential conflict, of interests exists, Trustees should consider whether a member of the public, with knowledge of the relevant facts, would reasonably regard the interest as so significant that it would be likely to prejudice a Trustee’s discussion or decision-making in his/her role as a Trustee.

Declarations of Interest

2.9.4 Accordingly, Trustees are asked to declare their interests, as follows:-

- (a) current employment and any previous employment in which they continue to have a financial interest;
- (b) appointments (voluntary or otherwise) eg trusteeships, directorships, local authority membership, tribunals, etc;
- (c) membership of any professional bodies, special interest groups or mutual support organisations;
- (d) ownership or lease of land and property;
- (e) ownership and interests in companies (with limits specified);
- (f) any tenancy of premises owned by the Trust;
- (g) gifts or hospitality offered by external bodies and whether this was declined or accepted in the last twelve months;
- (h) any use, or care for a user of, the Trust’s services;
- (i) any contractual relationship with the Trust or its subsidiary.

Interests will be recorded on the Trust's Register of Interests, which will be maintained by the Chief Executive.

- 2.9.5 The information provided will be processed in accordance with data protection principles and data will be processed only to ensure that Trustees act in the best interests of the Trust. The information provided will not be used for any other reason.

Management of Conflicts of Interest at Trustees' Meetings

- 2.9.6 Subject to clause 2.9.7, a Trustee must declare an interest, refrain from taking part in the deliberations and withdraw from the room where circumstances arise capable of giving rise to a conflict of interest between the Trust and:

- (a) a Trustee or a person with whom a Trustee is connected;
- (b) a Trustee, or a person with whom the Trustee is connected, as a user of the Trust's Services;
- (c) an organisation to which a Trustee is affiliated, ie owes a fiduciary duty to; and
- (d) a person responsible for the appointment of a Trustee.

- 2.9.7 If a Trustee believes that the circumstances which have arisen cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest then, having declared an interest, such Trustee may take part in the deliberations and decision-making process with the exception of circumstances arising between the Trust and a person responsible for the appointment of a Trustee as outlined in paragraph 2.9.6.

- 2.9.8 If a Trustee fails to declare an interest that is known to any other Trustee, then such other Trustee shall draw it to the attention of the Chair of the Trust and the Chair will declare that interest at the outset of the discussion and the Trustee who has failed to declare the interest must act accordingly in terms of clause 2.9.6.

- 2.9.9 With reference to Clause 2.9.6 the following persons are "connected" with the Trustee

- (a) Any person
 - (i) to whom the Trustee is married;
 - (ii) who is a civil partner of the Trustee; or
 - (iii) with whom the Trustee is living as husband and wife or, where the Trustee and the other person are of the same sex, in equivalent relationship.
- (b) Any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister of the Trustee (and any spouse of any such person)
- (c) Any institution which is controlled (whether directly or through one or more nominees) by
 - (i) the Trustee;
 - (ii) any person with whom the Trustee is connected by virtue of paragraph (a), (b), (d) or (e) or
 - (iii) two or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (i) or (ii), when taken together.

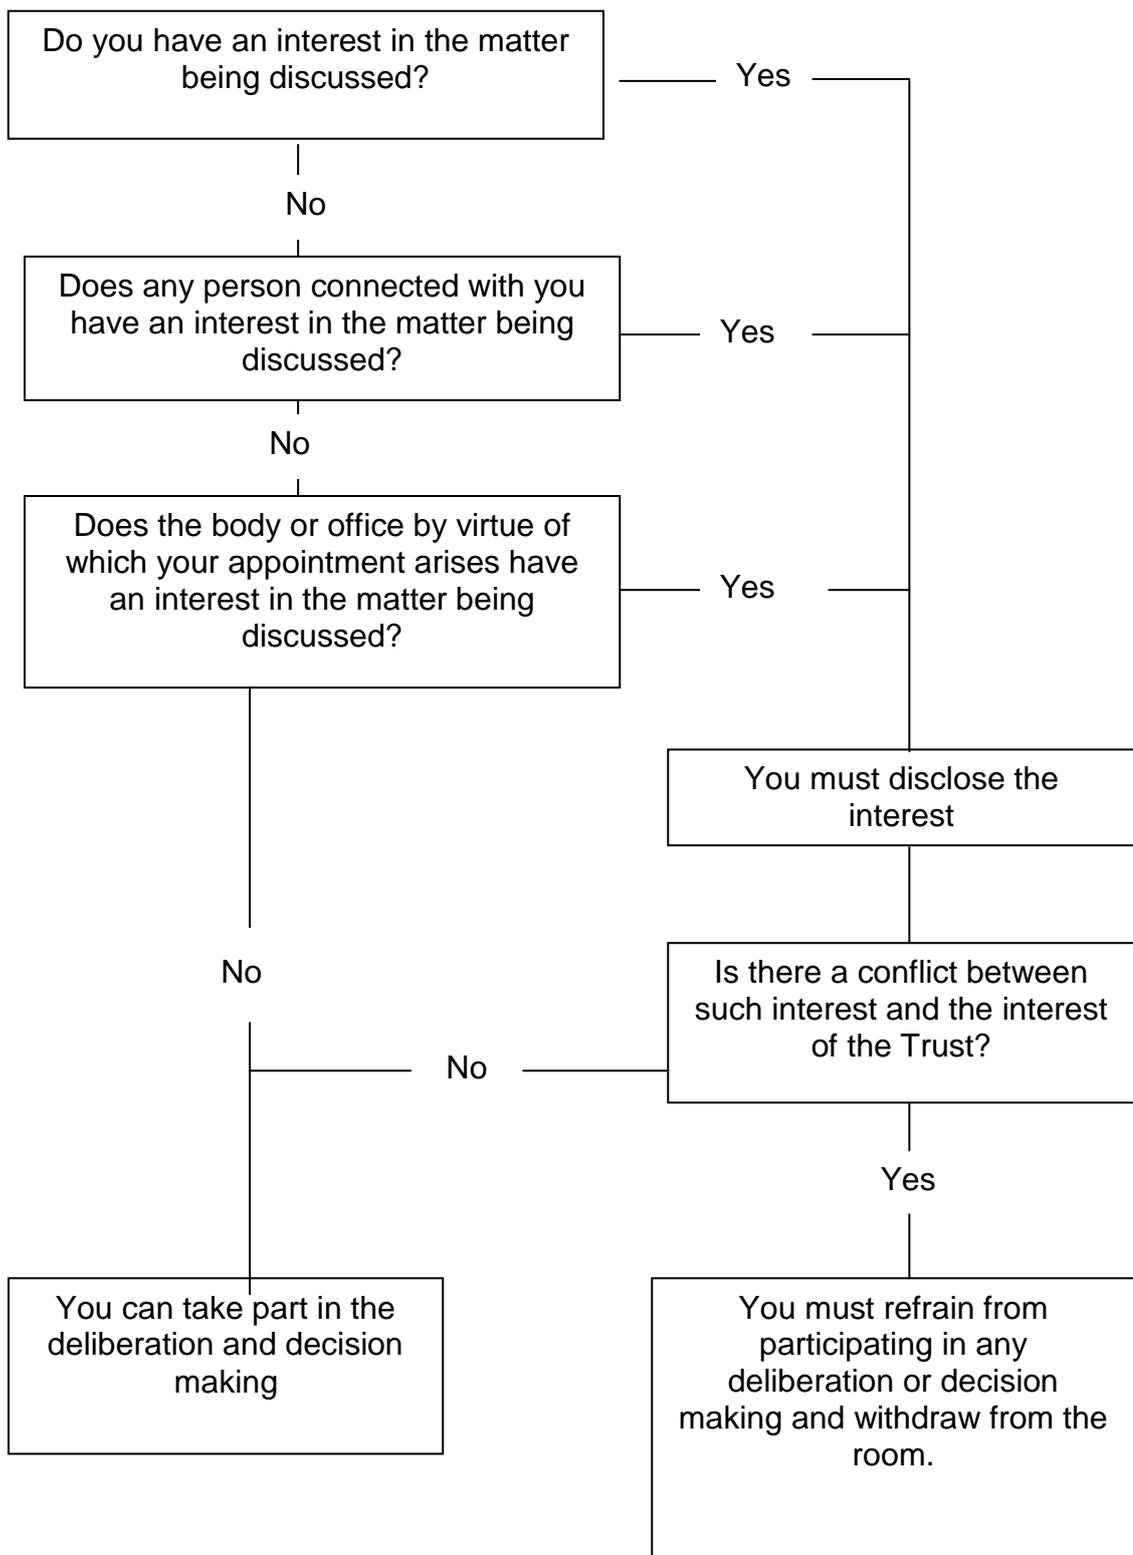

- (d) A body corporate in which
 - (i) the Trustee has a substantial interest;
 - (ii) any person with whom the Trustee is connected by virtue of paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (e) has a substantial interest or
 - (iii) two or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) when taken together have a substantial interest.
- (e) A Scottish partnership in which one or more of the partners is
 - (i) the Trustee or
 - (ii) a person with whom the Trustee is virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) connected.

2.9.10 For the purposes of the foregoing a person who is

- (a)
 - (i) another person's stepchild, or
 - (ii) brought up or treated by another person as if the person were a child of the other person, is to be treated as that person's child;

- (b) able to secure that the affairs of an institution are conducted in accordance with the person's wishes is to be treated as being in control of the institution; and
- (c)
 - (i) interested in shares comprised in the equity share capital of a body corporate of a nominal value of more than one-fifth of that share capital; or
 - (ii) entitled (whether directly or through one or more nominees) to exercise, or control the exercise of, more than one-fifth of the voting power at any general meeting of a body corporate, is to be treated as having substantial interests in the body corporate.

2.9.11 The Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator ("OSCR"), established by the Charities Act, has published guidance for Trustees which deals with, amongst other things, the general duties of Trustees and conflicts of interest. It is worth noting that this is OSCR's interpretation of the duties in terms of the Charities Act and does not itself have any binding effect on Trustees. It is however published guidance circulated by OSCR and ought to at least be considered when a decision is being made with regard to whether or not a conflict of interest exists. A flow chart follows, summarising how a Trustee ought to manage Conflicts of Interest.

3. MANAGEMENT OF THE TRUST

3.1. Composition and Function of the Management

- 3.1.1 Trustees shall ensure that the following services are always available to the Trust:
- Co-ordination and management;
 - Financial services

- 4.1.4. Unless specified otherwise in these Regulations, no business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Trust unless a quorum is present being at least 6 Trustees present, of which 3 must be Appointed Trustees. In determining whether Trustees are present at a meeting of the Trust, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other.
- 4.1.5. If the Chair finds that the quorum is wanting, the fact shall be announced and a period of 30 minutes shall elapse after which, if a quorum is then wanting, the meeting shall end, and the remaining business be carried forward.
- 4.1.6. No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Trust other than that specified in the summons relating thereto.

The ruling of the Chair (in which he shall have the benefit of the advice of the Chief Executive or such other person as is authorised by him) as to the construction or application of the Regulations shall not be challenged at any meeting of the Trust. The Chair may at any time, if he or she thinks it desirable in the interests of order, adjourn a meeting or suspend a sitting of the Trust for a time to be named by him or her.
- 4.2.3. Unless otherwise specified herein, all questions coming or arising before the Trust shall be decided by a majority of the Trustees present and voting thereon at a meeting of the Trust.

- 4.2.4 In the case of an equality of votes the person presiding at the meeting shall have a second or casting vote except where the matter which is the subject of the vote relates to the appointment to any particular office or committee or sub-group, in which case the decision shall be by lot.
- 4.2.5 If a Trustee disregards the chair, the Chair may order his/her removal from the room, or suspend the sitting for a specified time.
- 4.2.6 All meetings of the Trust shall be open to the public provided that the Trust may by resolution exclude the public from a meeting (whether during the whole or part of the proceedings) whenever, in the sole opinion of the Trustees, publicity would be prejudicial to the Trust by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons stated in the resolution and arising from the nature of that business or of the proceedings.
- 4.2.7 After warning, the Chair may order the removal from the room of any member of the public causing disturbance.

Any minute purporting to be so signed shall be received in evidence without further proof.

4.4 Confidentiality

- 4.4.1 Documents containing information which in the interests of the Trust ought not to be divulged will be marked as confidential.
- 4.4.2 The Chief Executive or such other person as is authorised by him/her shall classify all documents for presentation to the Trust and any committees or sub-groups of the Trust, and mark accordingly those classified as confidential, such classification being subject to the approval of the Trust and/or the relevant committee or sub-group as appropriate. He or she shall remove this marking when it is no longer, in his or her view, required, for a complete document or for part of it. Confidential documents or their contents shall not be referred to in public and their contents shall in no circumstances be quoted in public or divulged. The advice or opinions of employees and/or officials acting on behalf of the Trust, as opposed to factual information provided by them, contained in documents, whether classified or not, shall not be divulged at any time as being those of the employees and/or officials acting on behalf of the Trust.
- 4.4.3 The production in response to a request by a Trustee of a specified document or documents, whether circulated or not, which has not or have not been presented to the Trust or a committee shall be at the discretion of the Chair of the Trust.

- 4.6.2 Any Trustee who wishes to submit an expenses claim for incidental expenses must do so in any format set down by the Chair. Receipts must be attached and where receipts are not available, an explanation must be given for the failure to produce a receipt.
- 4.6.3 The Chair shall be entitled to introduce a requirement for prior approval of expenses or a cap on the maximum level of permitted expenses in relation to expenses for all or some of the Trustees and in relation to some or all expenses. Where the procedure does not apply uniformly to all Trustees, there must be a reasonable justification for it being introduced in a targeted manner.
- 4.6.4 It shall be the duty of the Chief Executive's office to keep a record of all expense claims.

5. AMENDMENT

5.1 Amendment of Administrative Regulations

- 5.1.1 Amendments may be effected by submitting a written proposal to a trust meeting, notice of which has been circulated to all Trustees in advance of the meeting.

Appendix A

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR TRUSTEES

I will respect and uphold the objects of the Trust, as set out in the Deed of Trust.

I recognise that it is included in this ambition that:

General Responsibilities of Trustees

- I will act within the Deed of Trust and the law and will abide by the policies and procedures of the Trust. It is my responsibility to have a sound knowledge of the contents of the Deed of Trust, the Administrative Regulations, relevant policies, plans and procedures;
- I will support the objects of the Trust and will champion it using any skills or knowledge I have to further that mission, and I will seek expert advice where appropriate;
- I will help to set and maintain the Trust's values and standards;
- I will be an active Trustee, making my skills, experience and knowledge available to the Trust, and I will seek to do what additional work I can outside Trustee meetings, including sitting on sub-committees and sub-groups. I will make sure that I am able to commit sufficient time to ensure that I am an effective member of the Board of Trustees;
- I will respect organisational, board and individual confidentiality, while never using confidentiality as an excuse not to disclose matters that should be transparent and open;
- I will develop and maintain a sound and up-to-date knowledge of the Trust, its financial, risk and business planning and its environment. This will include having an understanding of how the Trust functions, the social, political and economic environment in which it operates, scrutinising its goals and objectives, monitoring the reporting of performance and progress and understanding the nature and extent of its work;
- I will use the Trust's resources responsibly and when claiming expenses will do so in line with the Trust's procedures;
- I will seek to be accountable for my actions as a Trustee of the Trust and will submit myself to whatever scrutiny is appropriate;
- I accept my responsibility to ensure that the Trust is well run and will raise issues and questions in an appropriate and sensitive way to ensure that this is the case.

Managing Interests

I will not gain, materially or financially, from my involvement with the Trust unless specifically authorised to do so by the board in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, nor will I gain benefits for family, friends or other organisations to which I belong.

I will act in the best interests of the Trust as a whole, and not as a representative of any group. I will consider what is best for the Trust and its present and future beneficiaries and stakeholders and will avoid bringing the Trust into disrepute.

Unless authorised, I will not put myself in a position where my personal interests conflict with my duty to act in the interests of the Trust. Where there is a conflict of interest I will ensure that this is managed effectively in line with the Trust's policy. I understand that a failure to declare a conflict of interest may be considered to be a breach of this code.

I will inform the Chief Executive of any changes to the list of organisations of which I have board level membership or where I have responsibilities which may be seen to conflict with my role as a Trustee of the Trust.

I will inform the Chief Executive if I accept appointments to other organisations.

Meetings

I recognise that as a Trustee it is mandatory to attend all appropriate meetings and other appointments of the Trust or give apologies.

I will prepare fully for all meetings and work for the Trust. This will include reading papers, querying anything I do not understand, thinking through issues before meetings and completing any tasks assigned to me in the agreed time.

I will actively engage in discussion, debate and voting in meetings; contributing in a considered and constructive way, listening carefully, challenging sensitively and avoiding conflict.

I will participate in collective decision making, accept a majority decision of the Board of Trustees and will not act individually unless specifically authorised to do so.

Where I am a member of a committee or sub-group, I will take all reasonable steps to ensure that other Trustees are kept fully up-to-date with information upon which decisions may be taken.

I will take joint responsibility for decisions taken, including those determined by a nominated committee and sub-groups and recognise that I am accountable to stakeholders. I will submit to whatever scrutiny is appropriate.

Governance

I will actively contribute towards improving the governance of the Board, participating in induction and training and sharing ideas for improvement with the Board of Trustees.

I will help to manage the Trust with care, diligence and skill, taking professional advice where appropriate. I understand that I am not expected to possess expertise other than that which might reasonably be expected of me.

Relations with others

I will endeavour to work considerately and respectfully with all those I come into contact with at the Trust. I will respect diversity, different roles and boundaries, and will avoid causing intentional offence.

I recognise that the roles of Trustees, volunteers and staff of the Trust are different, and I will seek to understand and respect the difference between these roles.

I will seek to support and encourage all those I come into contact with at the Trust who are acting in the Trust's interests. In particular I recognise my responsibility to support the Chair, the Chief Executive and the Senior Management Team.

I will not make public comments about the Trust unless authorised to do so by the Chair or the Chief Executive. Any public comments I make about the Trust will be considered and in line with organisational policy, whether I make them as an individual or as a Trustee.

Ceasing to be a Trustee

I understand that substantial breach of any part of this code may result in procedures being put in motion that may result in my being asked to resign from the Board of Trustees. Should this happen I will be given the opportunity to be heard.

If I wish to resign as a Trustee at any time, I will inform the Chair in advance in writing, stating my reasons for leaving and will agree to participate in a recorded exit interview.
