Eligibility for appointment as a Trustee

Under Section 69 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 the following are disqualified from acting as charity trustees:

- Someone with an unspent conviction for dishonesty or an offence under the Act
- An undischarged bankruptcy
- Someone who has been removed under either Scottish or English Law or the courts from being a charity trustee
- A person disqualified from being a company director

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure they personally are not disqualified from being a charity trustee. Further guidance is available from oscr.org.uk
